

To keep it brief – I feel Net Neutrality paves the way for small businesses to succeed without being forced into the back alleys. A wonderful thing about the Internet is how it is an “endless main street” where all businesses get equal footing for their ideas and products.

Eliminating Net Neutrality puts only the well-funded in the forefront and quality and innovation become secondary.

Thanks for listening.

Dan Desjardins
1407 Willow Trl
Middleton, WI 53562
608 204-9848